

Karwar Research Centre of ICAR-CMFRI

In connection with the Swatch Bharath programme, cleaning programme was carried out starting from 02.10.2016 in hatchery campus of Karwar Research Centre. The front area of the hatchery and inside area were cleaned with the active participation of staff at hatchery. Before starting up the programme the staffs were explained about the importance of cleanliness in office premises and associated habitats. The programme continued till 31.10.2016.

Karwar Research Centre Report of 17 to 20th October 2016

Cleaning activity was undertaken in the office premises. Awareness was created among the staff members of the centre on the Swachh Bharat –a cleanliness drive. All the scientists and staff members of the centre were actively involved in cleaning of the office and office premises.

ICAR-CMFRI Karwar Research Centre – cleaning activities on 22.10.2016

Cleaning activity was undertaken in the Aligadda fishermen colony, which is located near to Karwar Research Centre. Awareness was created among the fishermen on. All the scientists and staff members of the centre were actively involved in cleaning of the office and office premises.

Karwar Research Centre - Report of the Swachh Pakhwada for 23 October

Cleaning activity was carried out in the hatchery complex of the Karwar Research Centre. All the staff members of the hatchery complex were actively involved in cleaning the garden and premises of the hatchery complex.

Karwar Research Centre Report of the Swachh Pakhwada for 25 October 2016

Cleaning activity was carried out in the Aligadda Landing centre located in front of Karwar Research Centre. All the staff members of the centre were actively involved in cleaning the landing centre.

Karwar Research Centre report of the Swachh Pakhwada for 26 October

Cleaning activity was carried out in the Beach are Behind fisheries Federation, Kodibag, Karwar by the staff members from the Hatchery complex of the Karwar Research Centre. All the staff members of the hatchery complex were actively involved in cleaning the beach.

Karwar Research Centre on 27.10.2016

Cleaning activity was carried out in the Hatchery complex near the RAS and nursery rearing shed by the staff members from the Hatchery complex of the Karwar Research Centre. All the staff members of the hatchery complex were actively involved in cleaning the hatchery premises.

Report of the Swachh Pakhwada for 28 October

Cleaning activity was carried out at the Aligadda beach near Karwar Research Centre of CMFRI by the staff members of the Karwar Research Centre. All the staff members of the centre were actively involved in cleaning activity.

Karwar Research Centre Report of the Swachh Bharat Pakhwada for 29 October 2016

Cleaning activity was carried out at the Aligadda beach near Baithkol by the staff members of the Karwar Research Centre of CMFRI. All the staff members of the centre were actively involved in cleaning activity.

Karwar Research Centre of ICAR-CMFRI

As part of Swachh Bharat Abhiyaan, Karwar Research Centre of Central Marine Fisheries Institute, Karwar observed Swachh Bharat Pakwada from 17 to 31st of October 2016. During the period many awareness programmes, cleaning activities were carried out at the centre. Swachh Bharat Pakwada concluded with the valedictory function held at Karwar Research Centre on 31st October 2016. The programme was inaugurated by the chief guests Dr. U.G. Naik, and Dr. S. B. Haragi Professors, Department of Marine Biology, Karnatak University P.G. Centre, Karwar. Dr. K. K. Philipose, Scientist-In Charge and Project coordinator presided over the function. A pledge was taken on the Swachh Bharat followed by planting the trees by the chief guests and the staff members of the Karwar Research Centre.

Inauguration

Pledge Taking Ceremony

Planting the tree